

From “The Ethicist”, A New York Times Column

The following topics follow us to the grave.

Viewing Requires a New York Times subscription.

Silver Falls Library has a subscription—ask the reference librarian for access.

A Stranger Bought a Set of Highly Personal Letters. Can I call Him Out?

<https://www.nytimes.com/2024/01/25/magazine/stranger-letters-purchase-ethics.html>

What Should I Do With My Dead Husband’s Journals?

<https://www.nytimes.com/2016/09/11/magazine/what-should-i-do-with-my-dead-husbands-journals.html?action=click&module=RelatedLinks&pgtype=Article>

Ancestry Tests Produced Shocking Results. Should I tell My Family?

<https://www.nytimes.com/2024/01/17/magazine/ancestry-tests-results-ethics.html>

Can I Tell My Brother the Truth About Our Paternity?

<https://www.nytimes.com/2018/09/03/magazine/can-i-tell-my-brother-the-truth-about-our-paternity.html?action=click&module=RelatedLinks&pgtype=Article>

“ . . . a truth not yet shared becomes a truth withheld. At some point — but starting at no particular point — a difficult disclosure comes to feel like an impossible one.”

My Father Sexually Abused Me. Should I Tell My Family?

<https://www.nytimes.com/2024/05/17/magazine/father-abuse-family-ethics.html>